

EPJA 2019 - LIST OF NOMINEES
NAME(S)	OUTLET	TITLE
Tim Lloyd & Kameel Stanley	St. Louis Public Radio	Progress vs. Backlash: What happened when hundreds of our Ferguson neighbors got phony eviction notices this fall
Tim Lloyd & Kameel Stanley	St. Louis Public Radio	Paved over Histories
Doyle Murphy	Riverfront Times	As East St. Louis Evicts Homeless Camp, Residents Face Bleak Future
Doyle Murphy	Riverfront Times	Downtown Businesses Consider Jazmin a Nussiac, But the Streets are Her Home
Doyle Murphy	Riverfront Times	After an East St. Louis Homeless Camp is evicted, the Houseless seek a Home of their own
Caitlin Lee and Clark Randall	Riverfront Times	For Landlord Nathan Cooper, Section-8 Tenants are Big Business.
Tony Messenger	St. Louis Post Dispatch	Jailed for being too poor is a Missouri epidemic.
Tony Messenger	St. Louis Post Dispatch	Lack of access to good schools, jobs and transit offers trifecta of St. Louis poverty issues
Ryan Delaney	St. Louis American/St. Louis Public Radio	Getting to school is a long and winding road for a homeless student like Angelina.
Chad Davis and Ryan Delaney	St. Louis Public Radio	When you take the schools away, what's left?
Chad Davis	St. Louis Public Radio	A Little-Known History: German Immigrants In Missouri Were Anti-Slavery Allies
Jesse Bogan	St. Louis Post-Dispatch	Residents of rundown St. Louis area apartment complex trapped by poverty, indifference
Ashley Linseby	St. Louis Public Radio	Water leaks, defetive porches among inspection findings at Ferguson complex
Ashley Linseby	St. Louis Public Radio	"I've been waiting a long time"
Ashley Winters	Northsider	Freed from Jail, Trapped by Monitoring Fee
Tod Robberson and Kevin McDermott	St. Louis Post Dispatch	Confronting municipal court abuse, this time in Normandy
Darrell Hudson	St. Louis Post Dispatch	To address inequities, must put race at the forefront.
Jeremy Kohler	St. Louis Post Dispatch	Guards brought Lamar Catchings to court in a wheelchair. A week later, the St. Louis County inmate was dead.
Rebecca Rivas	St. Louis American	Community leaders accuse St. Louis City's judges of unconstitutionally extorting poor residents through GPS monitoring ankle bracelet program
Rebecca Rivas	St. Louis American	City costs diabetic inmate who can't post bail, a toe
Ashli Lincoln	KMOV4	Jailed man dies from undiagnosed luekemia in St. Louis County, mom said he got no help
Ashli Lincoln	KMOV4	St. Louis expanding effort to reduce jail population
Sandra Jordan	St. Louis American	More than 50k eligible children droppef from meidcaid in MO
Carolina Hidalgo	St. Louis Public Radio	With Little Oversight, A Private Company Collects Fees From People Awaiting Trial In St. Louis
Kae Petrin	St. Louis Public Radio	Once promised for rehab, vacant buildings owned by developer Paul McKee now scar city's north side
Danny Wincentowski	Riverfront Times	St. Louis County Police No Longer Arresting on Misdemeanors Without Warrants